

PO Box 173 · 23 Science Center Road
Holderness, NH 03245
www.nhnature.org
Tel: 603-968-7194
Fax: 603-968-2229

Squam Lakes Natural Science Center Fast Facts:

Founded:	1966
Size:	210 acres of fields, forests, and wetlands
Mission:	The mission of Squam Lakes Natural Science Center is to advance understanding of ecology by exploring New Hampshire's natural world.
Staff:	22 full time year-round; 11 part-time, 26 seasonal
Volunteers:	311 volunteers giving over 8,632 hours in 2018
Program Attendance:	Over 25,000 guests served through school field trips, special events, and other programs at the Science Center
Trail Attendance:	Over 57,000 guests in 2018
Cruise Passengers:	More than 9,400 guests in 2018
Programs:	Home of Blue Heron School – New Hampshire's first nature-based Montessori school; field trips (to the Science Center or bringing live animals to a school); live animal outreach programs; summer Guided Discoveries; Nature Tours; Homeschool Programs; Group Tours; Birthdays
Website:	www.nhnature.org
Trail Hours:	May 1 - November 1, 9:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. (last trail admission at 3:30 p.m.)
Accreditation:	AZA Accreditation, Received September 2006, September 2011, and September 2016. Only AZA Accredited Institution in Northern New England.
Exhibit Animals:	Barred owl, white-footed mouse, mink, painted turtle, spotted turtle, musk turtle, various fish and amphibians, coyote, red fox, gray fox, fisher, bobcat, mountain lion, white-tailed deer, river otter, black bear, Black-crowned Night Heron, Great Horned Owl, Red-tailed Hawk, Broad-winged Hawk, Red-shouldered Hawk, Northern Goshawk, Bald Eagle, and Turkey Vulture
Lake Cruises:	May through October Discover Squam; Cruise with a Naturalist; Bald Eagle Adventure; Loon Cruise; Dinner and Sunset Cruise; Lake Explorers Family Cruise; private charters